CONTEMPLATION

Remember that in body thine a God is dwelling there;
Thy Temple from pollution free let is forever be.
Offend thou not thy God in thee, indulging in man's lusts;
Moreover if tormenting self thou groanest foolishly.
God has descended just to see the world with eyes thine,
Then breathe on Him with senses pure, the Breath of Sacrifice.
It's He in thee, that sees, feels, thinks, and speaks by day and night.
Be thus in all thou dost see, feel, think, speak—divinely bright.

We all admire a man who says what he thinks—as long as he says it about other people.

Eye-Witness Tells Germany's Plight

GERMAN-AMERICAN VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II
338 East 86th Street, New York 28, N. Y.

Hon. Harry S. Truman

Dear Mr. President:

We who address this appeal to you are American citizens of German descent who have regarded our American citizenship with sufficient seriousness and loyalty to have fought our share in the World War II without a thought to any interests other than that of this Republic—which now and always holds first place in our thoughts.

We have made a record second to none as fighters and those of us who, at the conclusion of armed conflict, found ourselves on German soil have contributed our best thought and effort to the task of making clear to those Germans with whom we came in contact that their position has in reality been greatly improved by reason of their having come within the orbit of a Republic founded upon the Declaration of Independence and its pledges of Freedom and Equality for all men, fortified by the principles embodied in the Constitution of the United States, and guaranteed in permanency by reason of the irrepressible determination of every loyal American citizen to "proclaim liberty throughout the world and to all the inhabitants thereof."

This we have proclaimed everywhere to our relatives and friends of German nativity, as circumstances brought us into contact with them; and their response to our explanations and assurances have been satisfying to ourselves.

But on our return to this Republic, we find a condition which threatened to militate against both the fulfilling of the pledges of World Democracy for which we fought, and the success of the mission which we carried on in Germany for the acceptance in full, by the people of Germany, of the heart and essense of American Democracy in its complete underlying spirit and implications.

For, although we found our German relatives reduced to direst need of the barest physical necessities, as a result of the ravages of war—and although we naturally and rightfully gave them our promises that, as individuals, we would contribute from our resources to the relieving of their necessities (a course absolutely within our rights, and entailing no expense whatever for the American Government)—yet we find, to our great amazement, that "red tape" obstacles and regulations, for which we find no slighest excuse or reasonable explanation, are standing between us and the fulfilling of the promises which we made to these German friends and blood relatives of ours.

Such "red tape" obstacles and regulations are damaging to the permanency and acceptability of the work which we performed in the way of contributing to the reconciliation of the people of Germany with our democratic principles—and to their acceptance of same with such sincerity, and even fervor, that between these people and our Republic war and its disastrous consequences will for the future be a moral impossibility.

In short, we are prohibited from even corresponding with our German relatives and friends—and still more, from sending them relief from their dire physical necessities.

We are thus placed in the tragically false position of apparently ignoring our promises to them and thus exhibiting to them an apparently callous and shameless indifference to the reputation of both ourselves and our country for sincerity and truthfulness.

We believe, Mr. President, that it will only be necessary for you to acquaint yourself by personal perusal with this, our appeal to your natural Americanism and to your natural honesty and belief in righteousness, to render you more than willing to relieve both ourselves and our common Republic from the disastrous implications and consequences of the obstacles to which we have referred.

We also believe that you, Mr. President, will very readily discern that it is within the realm and province of sound public policy for you to take immediate and effective steps for the remedying of this policy of discouragement of communication between ourselves and these German friends and relatives to whom we are committed by both our preachments and our personal promises, and for whom it is only humanly natural that we should feel that personal solicitude and sympathy which should be felt by each and every human being for fellow humans who are in great distress, if we are to be considered as having any claim to belief and sincerity.

We therefore beg of you, Mr. President, that without further delay you give full play and exercise to your natural impulses as an American gentleman.

Sincerely and most respectfully,
ALBERT J. DAUBACH
Commander German-American Veterans of World War II.

President Harry S. Truman

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed appeal is not a merely formal and routine utterance, but is the sincerest imaginable expression of men who have fought the good fight with the American Army in Europe.

I am myself a substantial witness of what I state in regard to present conditions in Germany. When I was there, I was fortunate enough to locate my aged parents and my brother and sister who had been bombed out twice and lost everything but their bare lives. These four people were living in one room without windows and doors and without food, coal or gas or any other source of heat or light—not even beds to sleep in.

My father is 76 and my mother 68 years of age. They were evacuated and lived and slept for weeks on the platforms of open freight cars during the severest kind of weather. They have only me to look to for help, and they undoubtedly are expecting with confidence at least some slight fulfillment of the promises which I made to them in all sincerity and earnestness during the one day and a half I was fortunate enough to be with them.

Mr. President, you can imagine the horror and tragedy of my position as I realize that—as a direct result of the present U. S. government policy—my promises to them have only accentuated their misery.

I know, Mr. President, that you will realize and conceive—just as clearly as I do—that it was not for such tragic impasse that I and other American soldiers of German ancestry gave first place to our loyalty as American citizens and went through this war not only with cheerful acceptance of its hardships, but with unequivocal loyalty to our Republic and its mission for the redeeming of the world from misery.

I feel that I need say nothing more in the way of appealing to your Americanism.

Sincerely and respectfully,
ALBERT J. DAUBACH

Knox Urges U. S. to Help Solve Parking Problem

Joins L. A., Other Cities of State in Appeal At Capital

WASHINGTON,—The first official step toward government-planned, privately-financed off-street parking facilities in San Diego, Los Angeles and other congested California cities was taken by Mayor Harley E. Knox, of San Diego, at a conference here with public roads administration officials. The Mayor said that Robert Hays, San Diego chamber of commerce representative in the capital, has arranged a meeting with Thomas H. Macdonald, PRA chief. Knox represented San Diego and the League of California Cities, which he heads, and Hays the chamber.

"Every large California city is interested in finding a solution to the growing parking congestion problem," Knox declared.

Editor's Note: Under our system of exempting landlords, owners of land titles from paying the full rental of publicly created landvalues into the treasury in lieu of all taxes, land is at a premium and congestion of population increases the rake-off for title holders. Business and Labor pays the taxes of the landlord; builders pay taxes to relieve landowners. Congestion and slums disappear where there are no private land monopolies. Study Henry George, dear Mayor Knox.

"Kikearoo" Court in Chicago

CHICAGO, (Special),—Readers of The Broom are already familiar with the "kikearoo" court held by Judges Caplan and Heller in the interest of freeing the rioters at the Smith-Terminiello-Kister meeting here. They will therefore be interested in hearing about some of the aftermath. It appears that the public reaction, both Jew and Gentile, has been so unfavorable, that both these judges are trying to "get out from under." Each is trying to blame the other and have taken to calling each other "kikes" as is a common practice among Jews themselves.

Judge Caplan has told many persons that it is the "biggest mistake" he has ever made.

They will think the mistake is still bigger before they are thru with it. All the details will be fully aired at the coming trials of the speakers at this meeting against whom warrants were issued on charges of "inciting to riot".

Anyone who has followed the Communistic-Jew antics know that they riot without incitement.

Nazi Leaders Not Allowed to Disprove War Guilt by Prominent Witnesses

NUERNBERG,—Herman Goering and Joachim von Ribbentrop demanded subpoenas for 54 witnesses, among them Winston Churchill and former French premier Daladier, thru their defense attorneys. They offered to prove that the Nazi leaders had tried to avoid war.

Churchill was quoted, that "England will destroy Germany when she becomes too strong."

The request was denied by the Allied tribunal. The prosecution has ended its presentation of evidence. The defense, therefore, asked for the subpoenas that were denied.

Federal City

Russia—a World Problem

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, March 17,—Stalin's recent speeches reveal him as the unregenerate enemy of free government, free enterprise and Western civilization. The savage actions of his political and military subordinates have shocked the literate world.

One of the best descriptions of Soviet barbarism I have ever read is from the pen of George Sokolsky, widely syndicated the past week. Said Mr. Sokolsky:

"Upon the very first indication that the United States were no longer submitting to the indecent and cowardly appeasements of Yalta, the Russians retreated from Mukden. Descendants of Genghis Khan, they have apparently burned the city while retreating.

"The Russians have introduced a medieval barbarism into the world, the looting of the land of friend and foe, the shipping home of vast booty, the property of friend as well as foe, the enslavement of human beings and their utilization as chattel, the creation of tension and terror in peace as in war.

"In spite of Mr. Roosevelt's inability or unwillingness to stand up for a single principle of justice at Teheran or Yalta, and in spite of Mr. Byrnes' cringing since he has become Secretary of State, the moment the Russians realized that this country is taking no more of their guff, they turned tail.

"The Russians have been bluffing admirably and undoubtedly have been wondering when these funny Americans would have the wisdom and courage to call their bluff."

Mr. Sokolsky then goes on expertly to review the history of Russian aggression against the Manchurian part of China, following the Sino-Japanese war of 1895-96, the big bear moving in to stay permanently.

"At that moment," relates Mr. Sokolsky, "in stepped John Hay, one of America's greatest Secretaries of State. His 'Open Door Policy,' aimed directly at Russia, told the Russians that the United States would not recognize monopolies in any country ceded by force or otherwise. John Hay's 'Open Door Policy', a reiteration of Daniel Webster's policy of 1843, has been the American doctrine from then to Yalta. AT YALTA, BOTH CHINA AND THE UNITED STATES WERE BETRAYED."

Thus, my friends, Russia stands, as we Rightists have long contended, the Red Roosevelt to the contrary notwithstanding, the one obstacle to a peaceful and just world.

Russia is a SLAVE STATE, where not even the faintest shadow of any one of the "Four Freedoms" exists.

Russian Bolshevism enemy of religion, of personal freedom, of the right of private contract, of that competition which lifted man from savagery to the heights of civilization, of free speech and free government.

Unquestionably its aim is to destroy Western civilization, as the English-speaking people know it, as the white race knows it, because the Soviet believes, as our wiser people believe, that the free governmental system and the Marxian slave system CAN NOT LONG EXIST SIDE BY SIDE IN THE SAME WORLD!

The United Nations Organization will fail utterly and soon, unless the 1800 million Non-Bolshevik peoples lay the law down to the Reds that they must adopt the free way in place of the slave-state way, or we shall expell them and prepare to meet them at Armageddon.

The poorest and humblest Indian or Negro, living in the most benighted part of any English-speaking-controlled territory, has more liberty than any Russian subject of Stalin and his oligarchy.

Why We Should Love Our Enemies

BOGUS CARLSON BOOSTS THE BROOM AGAIN

I was born an engineer, that means I brought with me, from previous incarnations, a mind that deals with facts and recognizes them. For this reason, as a child, my first concern was: Is there Unity in the Control of this Universe? In other words: Does God actually rule supreme? If God is, and really governs all action to its final results, then, I am safe and all things in life are just, as they affect me, because the final effect must be salutary under divine rule.

From the age of 8 to 15 I put in my mental energies to find the proof that God actually rules and governs the material worlds, as well as the events that take place in our lives. At 15 I had assembled the necessary facts and from then on I am working to put into practical accomplishment the theoretical vision of Theocracy, the Kingdom of God on Earth.

Under this theory, then, our alleged enemies in Life are our most undefatigable friends. Hate is as potent as Love in driving us to do the right things. When my friends abstain from "hurting my feelings" by telling me the truth about my bad habits of Thought, of actions, my enemies rush in with great glee to expose my nakedness to sight; and for that I love them and thank them. Without them I would be lost in ignorance and be subjected to greater disgrace and painful misery, if I had to wait for my faults to fully take effect and teach me thru bad results. But as long as my enemies watch me closely and rush in at the slightest sign of weakness, I am safely guided back to the right path where they can do me no harm.

And now let's see how this theory works out in practical everyday Life.

Avedis Arthur Derounian, also known as Avedis Boghos Drunian, John Roy Carlson and, in short, as the Bogus Carlson, which is not an alias but the truth, met me in the early part of 1943, by appointment, in Washington, D. C., in the lobby of the Plaza Hotel. He masqueraded then as an Italian Fascist, sporting an Italian name, Paganelli. We visited for over an hour. Here is how he boosts me in "Under Cover":

"Leon de Aryan— . . . . . proved to be more friendly. Born of Greek and Polish parents, he had changed his name from an unpronounceable Greek surname. The extremely crafty and tight-lipped de Aryan and I talked for more than an hour. I could not penetrate his protective armor other than to obtain the admission that he had been friendly and had worked, with Herman Max Schwinn, the West Coast Bund Leader; Hans Diebel, Los Angeles Nazi worker, and Mrs. Leslie Fry. de Aryan told me that his religious preference was Zoroastrianism—a cult confined to only a few score adherents in America, which made use of fire in the course of its secret and mysterious rituals."

Look at it with practical eyes. Bogus Carlson, the spy hired by the Jews and advertised by Lipshitz, states that I met my enemy, bent on destroying me, more friendly than he had been treated by Edmondson, who had avoided this bogus Italian friend of mine. And having in my blood the exepriences and sufferings of Greek and Polish forebears, who have undergone massacres for ages, naturally, I was on my guard. He warns his readers that I changed the Greek name, not because I had something sinister to hide, but simply because to the American tongue it would be unpronounceable. Then he gives me the greatest compliment a newspaperman can boast of. In a conversation of more than an hour I gave Bogus Carlson not one single item which he could have used against me or my friends, never denying a thing, but always craftily saying a lot that kept the conversation interesting but fruitless for smear purposes. And more than that, I was no coward, I did not deny that I was friendly with a number of people the Jews hate and persecute. In other words, I was no Peter in the courtyard who denied association with Jesus, when in trouble.

What higher tribute can my enemy pay me? That, now, explains my success as a newspaperman. Any wide awake person sees that I can keep a secret and talk for an hour, answer all questions suavely and never betray an iota. That's why people trust me and tell me lots of things. They found out that I not only have integrity but am wise enough to protect their confidence. The Jews may haul me on the witness stand anywhere. I am not obstreporous. I answer questions and never incur contempt of court, but when they examine my replies, what did they gain: "The extremely crafty and tight-lipped de Aryan and I talked for more than an hour. I could not penetrate his protective armor. . . . . "

"NINE MEN AGAINST AMERICA"

"Though war temporarily silenced these haters of democracy, they're making themselves heard again—and winning converts. —John Roy Carlson. "

This article appeared in the PAGEANT, April, 1946, published by Alex I. Hillman, in Chicago, who is president of the company; Morris B. Levine, secretary; among editors are listed Morris Weeks, Jr., Natalie Levin, Estelle Staub, Adolph Schus.

C. Leon de Aryan

As far as I am concerned, I am very much pleased with Bogus Carlson, again. He proves my theory that our enemies render us marvelous service which our friends failed to give. I am pictured as a hater of democracy. Since my oath of allegiance is to the Republic, and I did not take it with mental reservations, as some Jews and Communists do, I am still loyal to the U. S. A. and the REPUBLIC for which it stands. I don't propose to bore from within and transform it into a democracy where the Jews will egg on the rabble as they did at Christ's crucifixion and have been doing ever since in every bloody revolution. I don't approve of changes in our REPUBLIC by force, violence and usurpation, neither is my first allegiance to a Jewish Zionistic homeland in Palestine, or the UNO in New York.

The heading is most appropriate if one considers the source. The idea today, which dominates Washington, the White House and the economic field, is that THE JEWS ARE THE AMERICANS, the divinely appointed rulers over all nations. Naturally, having sworn to uphold the U. S. A., thru its Constitution which guarantees a REPUBLICAN form of government to its states, I am against slavery. An America, that betrays the REPUBLIC and institutes a democracy in its place, is never going to get my support and that is what John Roy Carlson and Hillman, Levine, Weeks, Levin, Staub mean when they say that they are portraying nine men who oppose a Jew-controlled democracy in America. Certainly, most assuredly, I am against it.

And then Bogus Carlson double-crosses the Jews, who paid him for writing the story, by quoting the truth.

Here is Derounian's description:

"C. Leon de Aryan, 60, gaunt, wild-eyed San Diego fanatic, has published The Broom for 16 years. This weekly appeals to the fist-swinging element of the American fascist underworld; its circulation is estimated at about 7,500. de Aryan, born Constantine Legenopol in Romania, once was under indictment for sedition. Today he is back at the old stand.

"de Aryan is a leading apologist for and defender of Bundists who are resisting Government efforts to send them back to Germany. The Broom is filled with pleas for these 'persecuted Germans' and tears for the 'cruel' treatment of Nazis abroad. de Aryan's most prolific contributor is Kurt Mertig, chairman of the Citizens Protective League (whose meetings were advertised in the official Bund organ).

"Broom columnist Washington Adams has a soft spot for the Japs. He decries the slaying of Japanese 'young men' and the destruction of 'Japan's civilization'. Moans Adams, ' We have reduced to rags, wretchedness and starvation the ablest and most progressive of all the dark races of men'.

"Throughout, de Aryan closely follows the Nazi 'master race' theory. 'Our policy is ARYAN, he wrote. We publish this paper to spotlight the alien, the barbarous, the heathen, the untrue.' de Aryan advertises for sale The Protocols the literary forgery which charges Jewry with world ambitions."

* * * *

I appreciate Carlson informing his readers that THE BROOM has been estimated at 7,500 circulation. With his help it soon should be over 10,000. Every time he, Lipshitz and Pearson give me a boost, people write in for sample copies and then subscribe. My father's name is mis-spelled, it was Lagenopol, (pronounced: Lagianopol), not Legenopol. Also my first name is still Constantin, not Constantine. tine.

If I were to tell you that I take the Christ teachings at face value and show compassion to our enemies, you might not believe me, but when Bogus Carlson double-crosses the Jews and depicts me as a noble soul who practices what the Savior teaches, that is the mysterious voice of God, testifying for me thru the mouth of my adversary. That's how God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform. I insist that as Americans we forgive our enemies and give them bread. If America refuses to obey the Christ, if the Christ is against the pseudo-American policy of Morgenthau sadism. . . . . should one follw the Christ or Morgenthau?

Even our columnist Washington Adams finds a good word to say for the Japs. But, stop, hold your breath: Lipshitz announced over the radio that the Japs and Germans will be our Allies in the next conflict. Does that not prove again the wisdom of the Christ in advising us to forgive our enemies and feed them?

But the best is yet to come. Listen to what Derounian says of THE BROOM: "Our policy is ARYAN. . . . . We publish this paper to spotlight the alien, the barbarous, the heathen, the untrue." While stating the bare truth, naturally Derounian had to appease his masters, who pay him, by prefacing it with:

"Throughout de Aryan closely follows the Nazi 'master race' theory."

Well, the quotation of de Aryan's words speaks for itself. We expose the alien: to American ideals, its constitution and Republic. We denounce the barbarous, the heathen the untrue. Does that make us "Nazi"?

Had Hitler followed the ARYAN teachings of Zarathustra, of the Princes of Peace, the messengers to the white or Aryan race, preceding and including Yessu of Nazareth, would Hitler, then, have succumbed to the barbarous practices of concentration camps and war? Would he have placed his faith in armed might or in the superior powers of the ARYAN Spirit of ingenuity and nobility?

Again the mysterious hand of God is discernible. Twice Germany has been disarmed by England with America's aid. IF THE GERMANS STAY DISARMED and devote their genius to peaceable pursuits, they yet will become the leading people of Europe. In the next conflict Russia will fight the last battle against British imperialism into which America will be drawn, as Lipshitz and Churchill insist. This will result in a suffering never before experienced on this planet. It will demonstrate the folly of force and violence to such a penetrating degree that the nobility of the ARYAN will come into its own and the counsel of the still small voice will prevail over the boisterous rabble rousing Sanhedrin. Then the ARYAN master race will lead the world in peace and prosperity, establishing the rule of God in practice, by loving and forgiving past enemies and meting out justice to all, according to individual accomplishments.

The eternal divine fire, of Zoroastrian lore, that burns in the heart of every living being will warm the soul and cleanse it of evil and illusion.

Russian Aggression

Editor, The Broom:

William L. Shirer et al, continue to talk about the possibility of coming to an understanding with Russia, or what was once Russia. Let Shirer et al ponder the following challenge of Lenin:

"The prolonged existence of the Soviet Republic side by side with the imperialist states, is unthinkable. Finally, either the one or the other will be victorious. Until this happens, a series of terrible conflicts between the Soviet Republic and the Bourgeois states are unavoidable."

If that isn't imperialist, what is? Lenin mapped the course of Red Fascism and every aggressive act of Stalin is evidence of an intent to carry out the challenge of Lenin. The Communists worship at the shrine of Lenin with the same oriental fervor that Mohammedans worship at the shrine of Mohammet.

Before World War II the boundaries of Russia had been extended to absorb 165 nations; since the conclusion of that war, the population of lands conquered by Russia and reduced to the status of colonies, equals that of the U. S., viz. 130 millions: does all this indicate in the slightest degree that Russia wants an understanding? No children, it shows that this is her policy "What' your's is mine and what's mine is my own".

The American people can thank the Democratic Party for giving us two war presidents who buncoed this nation into two world wars in the old world in violation of the ideals and traditions of this Republic. Gone forever is the peace our Founding Fathers hoped they had found in the New World for themselves and future generations. For now, like the man holding the tail of the bear, Uncle Sam can't let go of the quarrels of the old world without inviting the eternal hatred of every nation in Europe who look to this nation for protection.

It is time for a change,—time to turn the New Dealers out of Washington for they are dupes of alien ideologies. These Red Fascists will present a united front in the ensuing elections; do Democrats and Republicans who are loyal to this Republic, to our American Way of Life and to our Constitutional form of Representative Government, dare present a divided front? In view of the impending onslaught by totalitarian forces? "Friends of the Republic" can never be friends with the "Friends of Democracy" because the latter are opposed to American REPRESENTATIVE democracy.

Rev. Springer Wins Over Communists

NEW YORK, (Special),—Recent events across the country reveal what investigators already knew, namely, a pattern of Jewish strategy in their attempt to throttle free speech and assembly particularly of those active in the Nationalist movement.

The pattern is, by various kinds of connivery and working with venal politicians and judges, to bring about false arrests of those who are trying to assemble peacefully and present their views, political and otherwise, in the traditional American fashion as provided by the Constitution. There have been three conspicuous instances so far of this new "Jew Deal": the case of Elmhurst, Maertz, Mertig in New York, at the instance of the Jew Ginsberg, the case of Smith, Terminiello and Kister in Chicago at the instance of two Jew judges and the case of the Rev. Harvey Springer, of Denver.

Readers of THE BROOM are already familiar with the first two outrageous cases. The cases of Smith et al. have been set down for trial before juries, March 27, and promise to be highly sensational affairs. Already a Chicago municipal judge, named Quilici, with a long record of Communist affiliations, has freed those Communist-Jewish hoodlums who were arrested as rioters at the Smith meeting.

The case of the Rev. Harvey Springer, a prominent minister of Denver, has already been decided in his favor, while two of the Communists who invaded his church and when ejected brought about his arrest, were fined for disorderly conduct.

Agents of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League in various parts of the country are busy looking up other places to carry on this kind of dirty work.

THE JAWBONE OF AN ASS

By Mrs. M. Conan

I never did believe all of that story in the Bible where it tells of Samson slaying a thousand men with the jawbone of an ass. I thought it must be terribly exagerated; perhaps he did kill as many as ten men that way, but surely the rest would take to their heels, or turn on Samson and overpower him. Certainly a thousand men would not just stand still and be killed like that. But, then Roosevelt was elected president of this country, and I saw millions of our people lulled to sleep by his talks over the radio, and I thought, well if the jawbone of an ass can do that to the nation, maybe there is something to that Samson story after all!

Mertig, Maertz and Elmhurst

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Today I have visited Mr. Mertig in Rikers Island, New York, where he and Mr. Elmhurst and Mr. Maertz are confined. All three speakers, but not members of the "Christian Front" (on one occasion only) are confined to the psychiatry ward for observation—as Mr. Mertig said "we are political prisoners held like criminals in our own country."

I saw in the Broom your article on the various events and activities of our group. The Foresters Rendezvous has no more room for us and we were obliged to look for new quarters. Our next meeting is at the Klosterbrau, 1567 Second Street. Due to the coming spring weather and peoples' desire to go out of doors, we have decided to meet on a week day evening. So far we are trying Monday, anyway.

I think it is very nice to give this matter of the trial so much space and I think this should help matters a great deal.

It is really pathetic to think that a man is confined to one visitor once a week and that thru a screen so heavily barred that one has to shout to be understood all that for no reason other but loyalty for his fellow speaker. Had Mr. Mertig not arrested the man who first arrested Maertz, he himself would have never been entangled in this nasty affair, for he neither spoke in any way so it would bother any one nor did he sell any of these noted books on the Jewish Ritual Murder.

I have written to you on my own behalf as well as on Mr. Mertig's and Elmhurst's, so you would know where they are.

Very Sincerely, — —

FELICITAS von WEINRICH.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

We really enjoy "The Broom". Many issues are passed among our friends, we all receive much information from it. Glad to see that you listed the stations Upton Close broadcasts on Tuesday nites.— — L. E.

Kurt Mertig's Present Status

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Our new lawyer, Henry H. Klein, applied on March 4th for a certificate of reasonable doubt and N. Y. Supreme Court Judge Daly has not yet—on March 14th—handed down his decision, a most unusual thing!

Elmhurst and I applied two days ago for a writ of habeas corpus, which is to be heard on March 21 before another N. Y. Supreme Court Judge. After having been confined for a week to Queens County Jail, we were transferred to the workhouse on Rikers Island, N. Y., a week ago.

We have contacted one of the best New York appeal lawyers. Time limit for appeal is March 30th. Before that Klein will once more serve a motion for a new trial, the moment our application for a certificate of reasonable doubt should be denied due to evident pressure brought on the court.

The Citizens Protective League is continuing its deliberations as to forming a Voters League. This matter will receive greater impetus once I should have regained my liberty. How such a miscarriage of justice as in our case should be possible, even in New York City, is beyond my comprehension!

Miss von Weinrich wrote you to print an appeal to New York readers to chip in for an appeal—which will cost at least $2,000—for Elmhurst and me— and, of course, we don't dispose of anything like such an amount. I shall telegraph you if I should succeed being freed on bail.

Sincerely, KURT MERTIG

The Birth of a Savior

A Fragment of Ancient History Among Covenanters Transcribed and Abbreviated.

By Rev. Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Ha'nish of Math-El-Kharman.

In the courtyard of a beautiful yet unpretentious mansion stood Yousef, the wood artist, giving orders to his chief shepherd to take the flocks and their keepers to the mountain valleys of Tabor and to keep a protecting eye upon the little hamlet Bethlehem, so named by Yousef's ancestors in memory of their relation to to the house of David, the Bethlehem of Yudea.

"Peace be unto thee," said Yousef to his chief shepherd, " and ever remember that unto thy care I entrust thy Mistress Miryam, that beyond the sound of gossip she may care for herself and the child of promise. All being well, I promise unto thee in accordance with the agreement made by our forefathers, that thou and thy keepers shall be declared free, if it so pleases the Lord to send us His first-born."

Sirach, the chief shepherd, bowed deep and low, kissing the hem of the garment of his lord and master, saying: "Peace; it shall be as my Lord commandeth."

* * * *

At the hamlet Bethlehem many anxious hands were busily clearing away thistles, thorns and briars that had grown about the neglected and long deserted yet extensive cattleshed with its adjoining compartment usually occupied by the chief shepherd and his keepers. The shed well repaired and the old moss-overgrown stone wall, with the nearby well restored, the shepherds erected a Bethel imploring the Infinite to hear their cry of generations and send thru the mediation of their virgin mistress the first-born, who would thus be a Savior unto them and free them from the chain of bondage and serfdom they had been confined to thru the thotless deeds of their fathers.

The band of shepherds prayed fervently, for it meant everything to them to have a first-born male child in their master's family. Should fate and destiny avert their hopes, they would continue to serve as bondsmen, and their children born unto them would have to take up the burdens where their parents left off—to serve as slaves with but one hope in their hearts, that unto their master a male child be born at first delivery.

True, Yousef had proven a good lord and kind master to them, still the thot of serfdom seemed humiliating to one and all. Even as free men they could not have wished for a better master, yet free they hoped to be, that the choice of their hearts might know of no barrier in coming to their own and into society.

For several generations fate seemed to play pranks with them, for the first-born in Yousef's family, and his own in first marriage, chanced to be a girl, thus depriving the serfs of their only opportunity to be restored to society and be liberated from bondage.

"Sirach," said one of the minor shepherds, who had used most strenuous efforts in making the place presentable, "art thou hopeful in thy heart as to the first-born being a child of promise, to save us and our offspring from a serf's grave?"

"Peace be unto thee, Yakoob; I am very hopeful," said the chief shepherd. "Rochla, the soothsayer, overheard at the Far-off Country, Jerusalem, Aunt Elizabeth say that the angel of our God declared a son to our blessed virgin mistress, and that there was a special blessing bestowed upon the head of our Savior. Yea, even the name of our Savior has been revealed, and He is to be a child wonderful, not only to free us from serfdom, but to free all Israel from the bondage of those who sit in high places devising laws of slavery and oppression, against which our masters are powerless."

"Sirach peace be unto thee; but remember, even at this wayside place mountain walls have ears and crevices have eyes; one of those temple hirelings may be in hiding, and it would fare us badly should we be reported of expressing our opinions so freely about the temple rats and palace cats of the Far-off Country. I shall never forget the beating I got in public for refusing to crawl upon my belly, just to please the notion of a priest."

"You are right, Yakoob; peace be unto thee. We cannot be any too cautious. And now remember, that this place must be watched with an eagle eye as soon as our blessed virgin mistress makes her home in our midst. The temple brood have their emissaries at Nazareth spying on our master's premises. They have set the evil tongues at their best to cause mischief. So far our blessed virgin mistress has been spared annoyances, but as the fifth month of her betrothal has passed, relatives of our master are beginning to divide opinions. For years these relatives have kept in hiding, feeling sure that our master's property would eventually fall into their hands since his daughters had gone with their younger brothers, who married into gentile families, thus losing their right to an inheritance as declared by the Temple laws. The only one remaining at home is an invalid, who thus deprived of the right of inheritance remains in charge of the Rabbis."

"I understand," said the minor shepherd, "but our Lord and Master is now in second marriage, and whose will it be to possess his inheritance and us?"

"Peace be unto thee, Yakoob; this is now the bone of contention. Our master was thot to remain a widower, but now he has taken unto himself our blessed virgin mistress. An attempt is being made to prove the marriage illegal; in fact, some claim her to be only his handmaid, but should the first-born prove to be the child of promise, a male child, then the relatives and the Temple brood lose their hold on the property after which they have long ago stretched their bony fingers of greed. And now, get thee to thy comrades and admonish them to keep their tongues silenced until the new star of hope appears in the fields of heaven."

(To be concluded.)

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I trust that the letter in which I acknowledged receipt of $5 (five) has reached you and again my thanks.

I have finally decided after carefully thinking it over, to send you these few lines and enclosed you will find also a clipping, an article which I had written for the Salt Lake Telegram in November 1941.

Perhaps a lot of people would say: "Now, what is there to be so cautious about simply writing this letter?" I would say, yes my dear white brothers that's the mental stage all of us have reached, that have been confined since Pearl Harbor. Maybe this letter expressing my views on hunting in general, will be judged as slick "German Propoganda," or maybe anti-communist, for that's what Mr. Ennis thought I was. But some of the German elements here think I am pro-Russian on account of being able to talk without an accent the Russian language and others think again I am pro-Japanese as I am always willing to say a good word for the Japanese. During my confinement with over 600 Japanese in Ft. Lincoln, N. D., I have learned that they were a well disciplined bunch of men and on the whole had a higher standard of morals than our European brethren. "Now, of course, that looks very suspicious doesn't it?" Anyhow I take a chance. My case hangs only by a thread—and to be suspended in midair for this long is getting on the nerves of even, emotionally well balanced people.

In those few paragraphs which I wrote at that time to the Salt Lake Telegram there might be a lot of biting sarcasm, nevertheless it was well meant. Is there any better way to speak a more convincing way to our fellow man, in more floweriness perhaps? I doubt if it would be more effective.

And now a few more words regards my letter which was printed in the November issue 1945 and which caused such a furor among some of the German speaking elements, so much, that some had notified you of cancelling your paper, because I have "so outraged their senses of dignity and what else?" I sincerely wish, that those "good Germans" would write to the State Department, emphasizing to those gents their grievances— yes, with supplementary emphasis and that "I should be held for four more years for being anti-German" that would even up the score. . . . . .

Why? it must have had the effect of a lightning bolt, for I have noticed, some one still made an issue of my comment on the characteristics of a large section of the German speaking elements. It came in one of the December issues, under the ornamental heading "Schnaps & Liverwurst vs. Free Press." I hope they will ponder over it and that they may get on the right track, yes, may be. To be frank I have very little faith left in mankind and not only in my "good German" friends have I lost faith. I am enclosing in this letter the article of which I am speaking and in case you feel like making a copy of it, it is my sincere wish, that no one will mistake it for anything else, but humanitarian principles pure and simple, "and it should clinch the case against me."

Yours sincerely, — JOHN E. SCHULTZ

CHRIST vs. NEANDERTHAL SAVAGERY

My Dear J. E.:

Of course, I'll publish both, your letter to me and the one on 11 killed, 20 wounded in hunting accidents, to the Salt Lake Telegram.

Certainly, I lost a few subscribers and readers to the BROOM; you did prove to be a live bombshell and caused a healthy explosion. I liked it very much. That's what THE BROOM is for. Whenever one dares expose the stupidities of the sacred cows, the devotees of the bull just rave holy murder. But this paper is devoted to ARYAN culture and we don't cowtow to savages.

Few people realize that the original Aryan stock, which forms the root of the Germanic nations, has been so infused with the blood of descendants of the Neanderthal aborigines, thru intermarriage, that it produced savages who unite in their persons the ingenuity and systematic sense of order, of the ARYAN, with the brutality of the Neanderthal aborigines; result: Adolph Hitler, his murderous SS and Gestapo.

While Germany professes to be "Christian", Lutheran or Roman, the ideals of the Christ have been pushed aside and the Neanderthal ancestors have come to the front. Naturally, only the true elite among Germans are awake enough to realize this truth and to align themselves with the Christ-nobility, inherent in the Aryan ideal of Life, but these are the ones that interest me. For them I publish THE BROOM; hence your contributions, which at first I published over your "J. E." signature, were more worth to me than the few subscribers and readers we lost.

Not till the Aryan awakens to his divine stature of nobility, humility and steadfastness in the SERVICE of the Christ that peace can reign on earth.

This is the DAY of judgment when the line-up takes place: for and against the Christ-ideal.

Enclosed you'll find a $5 bill. Have been many a time in jail so appreciate it will buy you some comforts.

Sincerely, KOSTI.

"TRAGIC TOLL" OF DEER HUNTING HELD AMUSING

Editor, Salt Lake Telegram: I noticed an editorial of October 21 in this paper entitled: "Tragic Toll of Carelessness During Deer Hunting Season."

Tragic nothing! To me it is funny. In fact, highly amusing how these modern descendants of the Piltdown and Neanderthaler man plug away at one another in their madness to kill. I've watched those primitive men strutting in their red uniforms the streets of the city to show off what "great nimrods" they are. They remind me of days of yore when Italian hand organgrinders traveled the streets with a little Simian dressed in red, collecting the change. Their hat size is seldom over 6½.

Does the author of said article realize the endless suffering the poor creatures have to go through if they have just been wounded, which happens quite often when firearms are in the hands of such excited persons. The poor dumb creatures cannot, of course, speak for themselves, neither can they organize implements to tear loose and avenge the wrong mankind has done them. Since time immemorial men with higher inspirations have tried with paint and sculpture to bring closer to the human heart—but all in vain—these beautiful creatures, which symbolize peace, beauty and grace.

Despite the marvels of science the only way we can solve the overpopulation of our fauna is by throwing slugs of lead at them and holler "Hurrah!" I can almost vision the bloodshot eyes of those hunters, with the murder instinct so aroused in them that it is dangerous to come close to one of them.

How often one loses faith in the creating power! Yet through the dimness now and then the guiding hand of Providence can be seen.

JOHN SCHULTZ.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I received a letter from Mr. Mertig a little while ago in which he informed me of his whereabouts in a working house on Rikers Island. Up to now there have been no decisions as to his appeal etc., It looks as if the case is receiving a great deal of political pressure from several groups, though.

Economic Equity

By Chas. H. Ingersoll
(THE ORIGINAL $ WATCH MAKER)

THE RIGHT TO WORK

NEW YORK,—This is the most sacred and basic right existent. And it should have all science, statecraft and sense focused on enforcement of that right. Like our Freedom, Constitution and Democracy, the WORK-RIGHT should not be left to the playboys of labor and politics to manhandle.

Chas. H. Ingersoll

This is a natural inherent right which may be practiced only by economic law, which would operate to prohibit every interference with the free and complete employment of every able person. This is a complete reversal of approach to this vital subject.

Its popular treatment by unionists and the burocrats is distorted by modern industrialism corrupted by basic monopoly, and sustained by product-taxes. Self-employment of labor directly on land is discouraged by our inversions of economics and millions rush to the industrial centers.

These millions, overcrowding the labor market, compete with each other at sub-normal wages for what is called the right to work. This could never happen IF (a) our FRONTIERS were not closed by land monopoly, (b) if our tax system, which should rest wholly on and end this monopoly did not rest on labor products, doubling their price and halving production

THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK

The right to work would never be challenged if the opportunity to work were not denied to millions of willing hands by our failure to heed and enforce the natural economic law. This law FORBIDS taxing labor products: and DEMANDS that all taxes go onto AND END land monopoly.

The present threat of disemployed millions would be reversed, to an excess of millions of jobs. The shortage of jobs, displaced by an excess, follows the simple law of cause and effect when land is opened to widest use and factories have their sales doubled.

All the present fuss about labor's rights and the idiotic laws to prove them NOT right or rights, will vanish when labor has the simple UNLIMITED opportunity, which is all it wants or can make any use of. The RIGHT is to that free opportunity and that is INALIENABLE.

That the lawmakers, backed by the so-called educators, haven't yet made this simple discovery is humanity's greatest misfortune. But it alters not the fact that such is the natural law that governs. And it puts to rout all these machinations of burocrats and labor racketeers. None of them will do more than cloak the movement into STATE-ISM, which is SERFDOM.

Dear "Federal City" Washington Adams:

Am sorry I shall have to write you as I did on our introductory correspondence when you made an ignorant attack on Henry George. I will preface my remark that you confine yourself hereafter to reporting, which you are very capable regarding. In fact, I incline to compliment, as did Miss Dilling: your writing is O. K. but your economics are rotten.

I refer to your news letter concerning Alexander Smith, Senator from N. J. in Washington: —You pick him up on his demand for equality of economic opportunity, which is the kind of demand we should be fortunate in having any politician, legislator, or statesman stand for. It is the only demand that means anything.

You call it a socialist cliche and later a lot of other foolish names which do not apply. You apparently think this is the equivalent of demanding equality which would deserve your names and characterizing. This would be like demanding the right to work: the right to full employment: the right to a certain level of wage: all of which would fall within your stigmas as communistic.

All that labor can demand is the free and untramelled opportunity to work and when that is achieved, there will be no such thing as unemployment, labor war, poverty, etc. And the same applies to the economic opportunity that Senator Smith contends for.

There are plenty of politicians' idiosyncrasies for you to array without getting into the economic field. Or it is very easy for you to take specific economic subjects and get them analyzed by someone who has some economic training and sense.

With kind regards, I am
Sincerely yours, CHAS H. INGERSOLL

Dear Kosti:

Thanks for the boy's address. I will see that he get's 'democracy' and hope you will encourage him to make full use of it. Too bad you can't have his services to lighten your burden instead of having such valuable time wasted at a C. O. Camp.

Referring to your comment of my reading Gesell's book, before the comment I wonder if you have read it, as I have seen some very definite comments of yours which were not backed up, as mine were supposed to be, with logic or reasoning.

Might I ask if you have to eat all of a rotten egg in order to discern its quality? It is my humble opinion that in my article you didn't publish regarding Gesell, there is quite enough to condemn the book you want me to read as being comparable to the egg referred to.

I might also ask if you believe in interest or not, as Mr. Hill says Gesellists do not, and also if you believe in land nationalization such as they have in Russia and England, and such as the teachers in the H. G. S. S. S. do— at least they teach it. Whether this justifies your statement that the school is run by a bunch of commies, I am not saying, but as recently remarked, I think you had something there.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours, CHARLES H. INGERSOLL

Lawyer Klein Explains N. Y. Court Actions in Mertig-Elmhurst Case

Dear Mr. Kullgren:

Glad to hear from you. Answering yours of the 5th, Maertz, Mertig and Elmhurst were convicted on January 10 last of "unlawful assembly", as the result of an entrapment. I was not their lawyer then and stepped in only when I realized what was behind it all.

They wanted to get Sanctuary who is suing the N. Y. Post for half a million dollars for libel to which they have no valid defense, and Maertz who is republishing one of Sanctuary's books in Chicago.

I kept Sanctuary away from the meeting on the night of October 6th 1945 which was called by a man who calls himself C. Daniel Kurts. but whose right name is Casimir Kudelsky. He claims to be a Christian fronter. Kurts called the meeting ostensibly in the name of the Reynolds' Nationalist Party. A man named Charles Smith, whose right name is Smithinius, claims to be the head of the Nationalist Party in Queens County. He got all the speakers to the meeting directly and through Kurts, and he told Maertz to bring all his literature from Chicago. Neither Mertig nor Elmhurst ever saw or distributed his literature.

Smith got himself in with Sanctuary thru John Scott's "Money" publication and Smith became Scott's worker, treasurer and general handy man. I warned Sanctuary repeatedly against Smith and told him in Smith's presence in my office a year ago, that I didn't trust Smith. Sanctuary introduced him to many persons and organizations in spite of my warnings, so closely did Smith tie himself to the Colonel.

I moved for Certificate of reasonable doubt which is yet undecided. Before that I moved in Special Sessions where they were convicted, for an arrest of judgment, to set aside the finding of guilt and for a new trial, all of which motions were denied. I next moved the disqualification of the court on the ground of prejudice, which was also denied. I then asked the court to postpone sentence until after I petitioned the Appellate Division for the removal of the magistrate who held them on the charge of "unlawful assembly" after charging them with "inciting a riot". The police testified that the meeting on October 6th was orderly. I will move again for a new trial, in the supreme court, if my motion for certificate of reasonable doubt is denied.

I think this tells you what you want to know, the facts in this case. Best wishes,

HENRY H. KLEIN

Protocols of the Elders of Zion

By Elizabeth Dilling

THE OCTOPUS answers with real facts the twaddle and deliberate lies of the omnipresent B'nai B'rith propaganda. They assembled a fine group of Fundamentalist ministers to sign their "Manifesto" a few years ago concerning which I wrote in part as follows:

"Fundamentalist Manifesto to Jews

"America's leading Fundamentalists have recently signed a 'Manifesto of Fundamentalists of America to the Jews of the World', issued by Keith L. Brooks, a Fundamentlist much used as a propagandist for renegade Jewry. This Manifesto, a humble eulogistic expression of friendship for Jewry as such, contains at least one misstatement of fact. The Manifesto published by Keith Brooks states, 'We rejoice to learn that on May 14, 1935, the Cantonal Court of Berne, Switzerland, openly denounced the so-called " 'Protocols of the Elders of Zion' " as " 'forgeries, obvious plagiarism, immoral, and manifestly prepared for the purpose of inciting popular passion against the Jews,' "—New York Evening Post, May 14, 1935."

"Mis-statement

"While such reports of the Berne trial were and are still being publicized by Jewish agents, the complete reversal of the Berne verdict by the Berne Court of Appeals has been as largely suppressed by Jewry as possible. Few know that the first Berne trial was heard and the verdict delivered May 14, 1935, not by a jury but by a single magistrate, Judge Meyer, a Marxist, who had been elected by Marxists.

"The Swiss Court of Appeals in Berne reversed the verdict November 1, 1937, acquiting the principal defendant, Sylvio Schnell, and assessing the entire costs of the trial, 30,000 francs, against the state, saying in part: 'The accused Sylvio Schnell is acquitted without indemity, all elements which might constitute a basis for the charge being absent.'

" The Appeals Court held that the 'experts', C. A. Loose and Prof. A. Baumgarten, appointed by Judge Meyer to pass on the authenticity of the Protocols, not only were biased on the Jewish question, but moreover, the authenticity of the Protocols had no bearing on the case since they are of a political nature and do not belong in the class of immoral or obscene literature. The defendants had been brought to trial by action of the Federation of Jewish Communities of Switzerland on charges of having offered the Protocols for sale at a public meeting, under Article 14 of the Berne Statutes forbidding distribution of obscene literature.

"The Appeals Court also found that prejudice and gross irregularities had been committed in the first trial, not a single one of the forty witnesses for the defense having been permitted to testify, while all sixteen of the witnesses for the Jewish Communities which brought suit were heard, etc.

" ' The proceedings were accordingly carried on solely upon the testimony of the Jewish plaintiffs. And further although Swiss law demands that in the case of every lawsuit, shorthand minutes of the proceedings be taken by an official of the court, the judge did not adhere to this condition, but permitted the Jewish plaintiffs to appoint two private stenographers to keep the register of the official proceedings during the hearing of their own witnesses. As therefore no legal record of the proceedings was kept, it follows that the whole procedure, and the verdict itself are both null and void.' "

Dear Friend de Aryan:

The back numbers came. Thanks very much.

I have a 90 page book, a translation from the German of "The 3-Day Scene in the Temple in Jerusalem." This book was written in the 1840-s by the Austrian-born Jakob Lorber, called the greatest of German mystics and was written through what he called the voice of Jesus in his heart which he claimed to hear as loudly as a spoken word.

I feel this may interest you as all of the few Mazdaznan followers I met in Wiesbaden last year highly recommended Lorber as outstanding reading. I'll lend you my only copy, if you have time for it.

"Lorber" stands above and yet takes in the various Christian beliefs, as an eagle soars above a maze of roads, some long, some short, leading to the same goal.

I feel you may wish to run this story as a serial. I know the publishers in Germany and they would give permission. — — C. G.

Little Red Judge Frees Rioters

CHICAGO,— The swarthy Judge Quilici, shifty-eyed and oily-tongued, hit a new low in judicial degradation here in handling the cases of nearly twenty hoodlums who participated in the riot outside the Smith-Terminiello meeting of the Christian Veterans, Feb. 7, and were arrested for various offenses such as breaking windshields, windows, wrecking cars, attacking policemen, throwing missiles helter skelter etc.

Not only did he find the offenders "not guilty" in face of the responsible testimony to the contrary, but he took occasion to coddle and compliment the ruffians, to make long-winded speeches as if it were a public meeting instead of a judicial proceeding, speeches in which he reprimanded the police both for daring to make such arrests and for furnishing Mr. Smith and Father Terminiello a police escort after threats upon their lives had been made as well as threats to burn down the building in which the meeting was to be held.

While asserting that he was a strong believer in "civil liberties", he made it plain that civil liberties were not to be accorded to those with whom he disagreed and particularly not to Smith and Terminiello. Almost in so many words, he told the young ruffians, most of them Jews, that these two men had no rights that anyone was obligated to respect. Following his remarks to the logical conclusion, he indicated that he was prepared to condone murder itself. To have such words come from a judge, sworn to uphold the law, is the acme of shamefulness.

Not only is Quilici a judge, but in the past has been active in the American Civil Liberties Union. He has, however, also been active in the Communist-controlled International Lafor Defense, the business of which is to defend rioters and other malefactors who are working in the Communist movement.

Quilici, in his inflamatory speeches from the bench he was honoring, repeatedly referred to the affair as peaceful picketing, although he knew full well that many windows were broken, and many people were attacked and injured. Or is that the red judge's idea of peace?

This judicial proceeding was a disgraceful affair from every standpoint. The Bar association is said to be investigating it and Judge Quilici may be sorry he made such an ass of himself.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I am proud to inform you that my poem "Politics" first published in "The Broom" March 11th issue, will soon appear in 115 newspapers in the Mid-West, as Mr. Swain who writes a syndicated feature "Under The Capitol Dome" has informed me.

My stuff, both poetry and articles on several subjects dealing with human interest, has been used by many papers, so I must have something —And yet I fail to realize anything but praise and flattery for my writing. Could that be because I was born a Gentile? I never saw a Jew with talent fail to be helped into recognition. What's the answer please?

Honestly, — — JAMES BRYAN ROBINSON

Editor's Note: We started the ball rolling immediately and mailed Mr. Robinson $10 for "Politics".

Jew "Manages" Religious News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Leading churchmen, members of the Provisional Committee of the World Council of Churches, gathered in Genneva, Switzerland, and adopted a resolution which criticized the Allied policy in Germany.

How the churches of the United States feel about Allied policy in Germany can be gauged, somewhat, by a look at the church press of this country. According to Louis Minsky, manag-editor of the Religious News Service, there has been for some time now a campaign in the church press to bring greater relief to the German people. Although chiefly concerned with the humanitarian aspects of relief, the churches have been vocal, but to a lesser degree, in criticizing the economic policy in Germany. Like the World Council, they hope for a less stringent curtailment of German economic power. Most of the opinion berating the economic policy appeared in the Christian Century, said to be an influential Protestant publication in the country.

RUNAWAY SLAVES

Eleven German war prisoners, engaged in mine sweeping off Dunkerque, made a break for freedom. They steered their launch toward Cuxhaven, Germany. Four of them were killed by machine gun bullets from British corvettes. The victims belonged to the slave labor force numbering thousands.

Many of these prisoners were sold down the river by the United States. It has been a great many years sincs runaway slaves have figured in the history of the United States. Our representatives to the UNO might think about this as they carpenter the framework of the fine free world. — Chicago Tribune.

"Reds" Horning In On Young Women's Christian Association

Convention Leaders Put Over Resolutions Favoring Russia and Condemning Argentina—Approve Red Mongrelism

ATLANTIC CITY (Special), March 9,— This Republican city, with a Republican Jewish Mayor and separate grade school for white and colored, was surprised at the "mongrelist" resolution passed by the national convention of the Y. W. C. A. here earlier in the week.

Eyes were lifted at the recommendation that black and white units in the organization should be "integrated" and the color line, apparently, to be abolished.

Suspicions of Red influences in the convention arose at once, and seem to be confirmed by the action of the convention on the closing day when, for the first time in the history of the organization, political resolutions were adopted approving appeasement of Russia and CONDEMNATION OF ARGENTINA.

Two related organizations, the National Business and Professional Assembly and the National and Industrial Assembly voted to affiliate with the World Federation of Democratic Youth, a left-wing outfit.

SUFFERING FROM INSOMNIA?

Some severe cases of insomnia can be relieved merely by eliminating salt from the diet. No sedatives, or drugs, need be used. On saltless menus, many who long have been wakeful nights can get a good night's sleep.

This is the conclusion of Washington's Michael M. Miller, M. D., reporting in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

To patients who had been sleeping only an hour or two a night, he brought surcease within three weeks. Day by day their taut nerves grew more relaxed. Minor incidents ceased to cause emotional explosions. They began to sleep eight hours a night, and awake refreshed.

This last point is most important, says Dr. Miller, because often insomniacs who use barbiturate or bromide drugs sleep but they wake up tired and irritable.

German-British Mediation Tried

NUERNBERG,—Birger Dahlerus, a Swedish engineer, testified that Sweden rejected a suggestion three weeks before outbreak of World War II that it—or King Gustaf V—attempt to mediate between Germany and Britain.

Dahlerus told the international military tribunal, he then personally carried a six-point peace plan from Adolph Hitler to British Prime Minister Chamberlain four days before the Wehrmacht marched into Poland.

Taking the stand as a defense witness for Hermann Goering, Dahlerus said Hitler's proposals, which he took to 10 Downing st. Aug. 27, 1939 for submission to Chamberlain, Lord Halifax and others, were:

Germany would sign a pact of alliance with Britain; England would help Germany obtain Danzig and the Polish corridor, but give the Poles use of Danzig's port; Germany would guarantee Poland's sovereignty; agreement on Germany's former colonies would be made, "adequate guarantees" on the treatment of the German minority in Poland would result, and Germany would pledge to "defend the British."

Two young Hebrews were telling their father how they had been told they looked like famous men. One said he had been advised he looked like Einstein, and the other was told he resembled Cecil DeMille.

"Boys," said the father. "That's not bad, but let me tell you something that happened to me. I was standing on the street corner a little while ago when Officer Clancy came along. He looked at me and said 'Holy Moses, are you here again'?"

Zionists and Communists

Since World War III has already started and the USA is going to pull the chestnuts for England out of the fire by fighting once more against England's enemies, it is a matter of plain commonsense that England's enemies who reside in USA are the Fifth Column in our midst. The Zionists have already declared war on England and are fighting in Palestine. The Jews are shooting and the California Jewish Voice of Los Angeles brags about it:

"Yes, Jews who shoot are something new in this world. Up to now, and still in most parts of the world, when some wrong is committed against Jews, we have met the problem by the adoption of resolutions. More resolutions have been passed by Jews than by any three other peoples of the world put together. I do not believe they have been worth the paper on which they have been printed. Now, we have moved away a bit from resolutions, and are trying a scientific approach against anti-Semitism."

Since Churchill has already announced under the auspices of President Truman, that Russia is its imperialistic antagonist, our native and imported Communists are the Fifth Column.
